Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road (CMR), 1956

•Objective:

- Standardize the conditions governing the contract for the international carriage of goods by road, particularly with respect to:
 - Documents used for such carriage
 - Carrier's liability

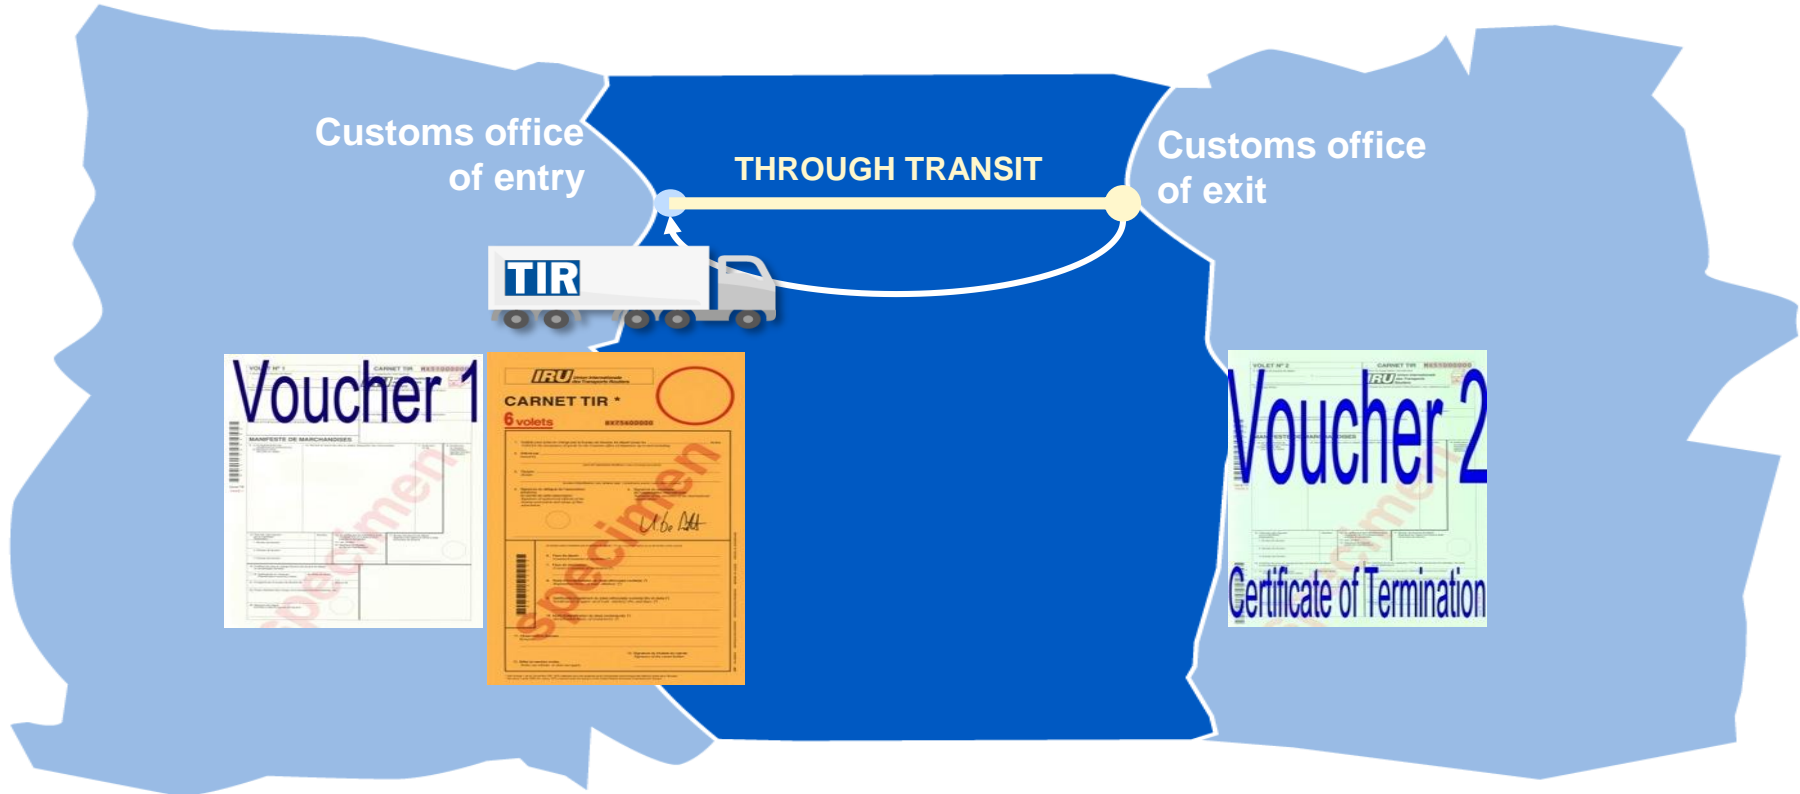

•55 Contracting Parties

A blank CMR (Convention on the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road) form. The form is divided into several sections with red borders and contains various fields for data entry, including sections for the carrier, the consignor, the consignee, and details of the goods being transported. The form is titled 'CMR' at the top.
